COME CELEBRATE YOUR PARTY AT THE REC PLEX!

The RecPlex logo is a circular emblem. The top half is blue with the word "RecPlex" in white, sans-serif font. The bottom half is green with a pattern of small, white, stylized figures or shapes, possibly representing people or a community. The entire logo is enclosed in a thin orange border.
